

Roshelle Boyce (Tap)

Born and bred in Napier, Roshelle started dancing at age 3, first Ballet and then Tap. Over the years Roshelle sat exams and studied other forms of dance, Modern Jazz, National and later Irish Riverdance. Roshelle has been involved in many theatre productions as a cast member and choreographer in Napier, including 42nd Street and Singing in the Rain. Roshelle opened Feet First Dance Company in the mid 90's and taught all genres of dance, many of her students have competed at competition level. Roshelle comes from a strong family of dance and they were very much involved with the Annual Easter Competitions. Roshelle is honoured to be included in the Napier Performing Arts Competitions Society Easter Festival 2024 as the Tap Adjudicator.
